

Once you log in you will be taken to your Dashboard. Here you can have a brief overview of your status and navigate through the platform.

If you don't have a class, ask your teacher for the Class code and insert it by clicking on the pencil.

The Class name will appear here.

When you begin solving exercises, you will find helpful tips and progress notifications here.

Here, you can view your overall progress and that of your class (if you have one), along with the percentage score for each linguistic skill.

By clicking on View Progress, you will be taken to your activated Workbooks (see page 3).

Here, you find the tasks assigned by your teacher (if you already have a class).
Click on the number of the exercise to solve it.

By clicking on Readers and more you will be able to view all your e-books. You can browse the galleries and choose among readers, grammars, supplementi, and much more.

Here you will be able to view your Student's Book in interactive or digital format.
Insert the activation code that you find inside your paper book in the specific space on the left vertical menu (Add New Code). Or purchase directly the digital or interactive version on the e-shop.

Here you will be able to access your Workbook.
Insert the activation code that you found inside your paper book (or that you purchased on the e-shop) in the specific space on the left vertical menu.
Once you have inserted the code, you will have access to the related materials too: games, videos, and audio, by clicking on the corresponding buttons.

The screenshot shows a student interface for 'Class page: Italian language A1_2021-2022'. The top navigation bar includes a language flag (UK), a notification bell, and the user name 'Ariel Ferreri'. Below the bar are four main action buttons: 'Student's Books', 'Workbooks', 'Games', and 'Class page'. The main content area is divided into three columns: 'My Highlights' with a list of messages, 'My Progress' showing a 93% completion rate with a circular progress indicator and a list of subjects (Gra, Let, Les, Com, Asc, Mix), and 'Assignments' with a list of tasks and due dates. A left-hand vertical menu contains various options, with a 'Tools' section expanded to show 'Interactive Grammar', 'Grammar tables', and 'Glossaries'. Three callout boxes provide instructions: one for 'Readers and more', one for 'Student's Books' and 'Workbooks', and one for 'Tools'.

By clicking on this button, you can explore and use helpful Tools for your studying!

The screenshot displays the student environment interface. On the left is a dark sidebar with navigation options: Dashboard, Add New Code, Student's Books, Readers and more, Games, Video, Audio, Class page (circled in green), and Tools. The main content area has a blue header with the text 'Class page: La terrazza italiana' and the user's name 'Ariel Gallo'. Below the header, there are three tabs: 'Assignments' (circled in green), 'Tests' (circled in green), and 'Chat' (circled in green). A green arrow points from a text box to the 'Assignments' tab. The text box contains the following text:

on the related tab, you will find the assignments, tests, and messages sent by your teacher.

The main content area shows two class pages. The first is 'Nuovissimo Progetto italiano 1' by Anna Gallo, with units Unit-11 (1, 2) and Unit-00 (7). The second is 'Via del Corso A1' by Anna Gallo, with units unit-09 (03), unit-04 (01, 02, 03), and unit-01 (06, 07, 08). Dates 09/03/2023 and 07/03/2023 are visible next to some units.
